Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant has decided to cancel most of the previously pending claims and add four entirely new claims, thus necessitating a new ground of rejection.

Claim Objections

2. There appear to be a few clerical errors in the numbering of the claims. On page 1 of the response filed on 03 January, 2003, applicant states that claims 13-15, 17, 18, 21-40, and 45-52 are cancelled and claims 57 to 60 are newly added. However, in paper no. 19, filed 06 December 2001, applicant has already added a claim 57. For examination purposes the newly added claims have been renumbered claims 58-61.
3. Claims 57 and 59 are objected to because of the following informalities:
 - Claims 57 and 59 are dependent upon previously cancelled claims. In the case of claim 57, it appears that the applicant intended to cancel claim 57. As for claim 59, for examination purposes it will be assumed that the applicant meant to depend the claim upon claim 58.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Application/Control Number: 08/892,092

Art Unit: 2612

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 58-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Saito (Japanese Publ. No. 06-231023).

6. Regarding claim 58, Saito discloses an information recorder which retrieves information from a memory card (16) and determines a filename for a current image being recorded. The system includes an image pickup circuit (2) for generating an image data and a system controller (12) for controlling the operation of the camera. The camera operates to access the memory card (16) to determine what image files are stored onto it. In order to avoid duplication of file names it will determine if the current image being saved has a name similar to the name of a file stored on the memory card. If there is such a file, then a number is incremented and a new file name is generated. Each of the file names is composed of a character and a serial number (Fig. 5, 7, and 8) and is composed in accordance with the information retrieved from the memory card. After the file name is determined the image file is saved onto the memory card (16). A translation of the Japanese publication has been ordered and will be available for subsequent actions.

7. As for claim 59, the information obtained from the memory card (16) determines a plurality of characters to be used for a file name. More specifically, there are two bytes that are allocated to be incremented if an image with a similar filename is found on the memory card.

8. Claim 60 is considered a method claim corresponding to claim 58. Please see the discussion of claim 58 above.

9. Claim 61 is a method claim corresponding to claim 59. Please see the discussion of claim 59 above.

Conclusion

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any response to this final action should be mailed to:
